All,

Be advised that the attached article will appear in the January 2017 edition of Journal AWWA. I wanted to share with my colleagues in the water industry some of the work we have done here in Milwaukee, so worked on this overview paper. It reflects our experiences and data collected and analyzed through about the end of August.

I am very appreciative of the assistance and input you have provided into our efforts to improve public health protection here in Milwaukee relative to lead service lines.

Carrie
